

A hand with a blue sleeve points towards the center of the image. The background is a dark screen filled with green and yellow text, including error messages like "ERROR: could not open" and "unable to write", and code snippets such as "write", "bind", and "55". The text is slightly blurred, creating a sense of depth. The overall theme is digital security and error handling.

Protección contra virus y fraudes