

Indian Dried Red Chillies

Indian Dried Red Chillies are celebrated globally for their vibrant hues, range of heat profiles, and robust flavor. India's premier chilli-growing regions—such as Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Karnataka, and beyond—offer renowned varieties like fiery Teja (S17), medium-hot Guntur, and richly colored yet mild Byadgi. These chillies are carefully sun-dried and processed using modern, hygienic methods to preserve their aroma, pigment, and pungency. Spices India delivers traceable, quality-controlled produce tailored to needs—be it heat, color, or longevity—with shelf life spanning 12–18 months under optimal storage.
